

About ROC Training and Recruitment

ROC Training and Recruitment was founded in 1998 in the United Kingdom and quickly established its group of international offices to service our clients around the globe. Our UAE office was founded in 2006 to service our clients in the Middle East, Asia and Africa.

ROC training and Consulting offers a one stop solution to our clients' Training, Human Resources and Recruitment requirements.

Our client list ranges over some of the most prestigious private and public organizations, we are continually developing and enhancing our courses to provide the most state of the art training. Our focus is based on providing good quality training solutions for our clients regardless of size or business sector.

Our training courses are delivered by highly professional and experienced trainers.

We can deliver our courses both in Dubai and at international locations around the world, depending on our client's requirement.

All courses can be delivered in English or Arabic as required.

Our courses are internationally certified, upon successful completion of each course our delegates are provided with a recognized certificate.
